SUMMARY

I'm a passionate WordPress developer who loves building clean, fast, and user-friendly websites. With over seven years of experience, I've worked with agencies and high-standard clients, turning ideas into functional, SEO-ready sites. I'm detail-oriented, reliable with deadlines, and always looking for ways to improve. Whether it's a full-site build, a redesign, or troubleshooting, I bring a problem-solving mindset and a genuine love for what I do! I leverage AI tools to streamline workflows and deliver outstanding results.
